SPORTS PLANS ARE OUTLINED

A second meeting to discuss ways and means of instituting a community recreation program was held in the council chambers Monday. The meeting was addressed by Deputy-Reeve W. E. Brandon, chairman of the York county education committee, Deputy-Reeve Horace Purdy, secretary of the same committee, and Reeve Hugh Griggs, county commission. The three men described a leadership training course which had been tried out in their municipalities along the lakeshore and which had been designed to provide leaders for such a program as has been discussed for Newmarket.

Following their remarks, there was a lively discussion of what was needed for the town in this line. H. E. Gilroy, president of the Newmarket Lions club, said that the club had been planning a recreation program for school children during the summer months. While still in obeisance to his committee's decisions, Mr. Gilroy said that he felt there would be no opposition from the club in starting such a program. The plans of the club received hearty endorsement from the meeting.

Dr. L. W. Dales was in the chair and in the course of his remarks stated the need for a community council to handle such plans as the meeting were discussing. "A community council could plan for a living memorial to honor our returning servicemen and women which would be of real service to the community," he said.

RED CROSS DANCES NET $605 IN SEASON

The last Red Cross dance of the season was held Friday evening in the high school auditorium and was the usual success. Everyone reports a most enjoyable time. Art West's orchestra supplied the music.

The members of the entertainment committee of the Red Cross who sponsor these dances are as follows: pres., Mrs. A. J. Cody; secy., Mrs. R. L. Pritchard; treas., Mrs. J. E. Morris; committee, Mrs. T. Leach, Mrs. G. E. Case, Mrs. C. S. Gilbert, Mrs. J. O. Little, Mrs. E. Robinson, Mrs. R. D. Brown, Mrs. C. H. Best, Mrs. M. Carter, Mrs. C. Blackstock, Mrs. E. E. Blodstone, Mrs. W. A. McCaffrey, Mrs. A. Molyneaux and Mrs. E. J. Galbraith.

The committee thought it might be interesting to the public to know just how much has been accomplished by this group of ladies. The dances from Nov. 1 to April 20 this season have netted a total of $605.39 which has been turned over to the Red Cross. Since this committee was formed in May, 1940, a total of $2,830.84 has been raised. This is a real credit and satisfaction to those ladies for such a splendid amount of money has brought much comfort to many of our boys who are fighting for our freedom.

The members of the committee give much of the credit for the success of the dances to the high school band, Principal J. W. Lockhart and Mr. Hewson, the caretaker.

Nazi Flying Bomb Declared Murderous By Pte. Stan. Keetch

The flying bomb is a devilish invention, Pte. Stanley Keetch, whose wife and son live on Charles St., said this week in telling some of his experiences overseas. "The flying bomb is not war, it is murder." Pte. Keetch recently returned after five years and three months overseas with the R.C.A.C. He is on a 30-day leave, reporting to Toronto when the leave is up.

Pte. Keetch said that when a flying bomb passed overhead, less than 2,000 feet in the air, the vibrations caused by its passage were sufficient to knock chinaware off the shelves. He said that he had seen craters dug by the explosion of a "flying telegraph pole" which were at least 30 feet deep and 60 feet wide.

"Antwerp was bombed by these robots all the time but not once was the harbor area hit," he stated. "In flight they seemed to have a long tail of fire streaming from them. You didn't hear the flying telegraph poles, they travelled faster than sound. The others, the ones with wings, did the most damage. They would level a whole block."

He told of seeing the flying telegraph poles or rocket bombs, being launched at night. "They shoot directly up with a long fiery stream behind them until they are out of sight," he said.

Pte. Keetch declared that the food shortage was most serious in the formerly occupied countries. "I have seen workmen going on the night shift with only a sandwich of black bread and boiled cabbage to serve as supper," he said. "The munition workers never left their jobs even in the worst of it."

Under the chairmanship of Aubrey Davis, chairman of the North York county Eighth Victory Loan committee, a pre-campaign banquet was held at Pickering College Friday night.

Rev. Patrick Mahoney, padre of the Black Watch Association and Imperial Women's Veterans' Association, was the guest speaker.

One hundred and seventy-five district representatives and salesmen sat down to dinner at the college. Seated at the head table were Squad-Ldr. Gordon B. Ough, D.F.C., Newmarket; Mayor Ross Linton, Aurora; Lieut. Col. Newton M. Young, commanding officer of No. 23; Major Dr. L. W. Dales, Newmarket; Rev. Henry Cotton, Newmarket; Mr. Davis; Rev. Mahoney; FO Gilbert Whittemore, Richmond Hill; PO J. G. Teasdale, Newmarket; Warden Fred A. Lundy, Newmarket; Capt. Rev. W. D. Muckle, D.D., Newmarket.

Turning to the loan, Rev. Cotton said that after victory in Europe, two problems will still confront the Allies, the defeat of Japan and the winning of the peace.

Rev. Cotton said the Canadian bomber groups, given an objective of $1,000,000 in the Eighth Victory Loan, had subscribed 160 percent of their objective before the loan had even opened.

"Those boys fly through hell day and by night, yet they can oversubscribe their loan objective.

They do their bit in the fighting and they do more than their share in the loan."

Rev. Mahoney said that he was conscious of a feeling of confidence about the outcome of the loan. "There is spirit of enthusiasm at his ability to attend from J. M. Walton, Aurora, who has played large part in past Victory Loans."

He urged that politics, and all differences be submerged in the effort to make the Eighth Victory Loan campaign the most successful loan in history.

"I have every confidence that we will be successful," said Mr. Davis in conclusion. He thanked Joseph McCulley, headmaster of Pickering College, for his hospitality in making the college available to the gathering.

CONFIDENCE IN THE LOAN

There is a noticeable feeling of confidence in the outcome of the Eighth Victory Loan campaign. It suggests that there will be an overwhelming answer in this district to the government's need for war finances. It would be only fitting. Even as this is written we are momentarily expecting word of the capitulation of Berlin, or the juncture of the Russians in the east; and the Americans in the west, or even the joint proclamation from our war leaders that Germany is through. It is only reasonable that the confidence and optimism with which we at home await word of victory should extend to our effort in the Eighth Victory Loan.

Remember, however, the words of Maj. Edward Clayton Fuller, speaking before the Lions club on Monday night. Maj. Fuller defined victory as that time when every Canadian soldier has returned to Canada and is employed, when every Canadian soldier who has been disabled is receiving the best of care, when the work of rehabilitation is finished.

It is to accomplish the victory that Maj. Fuller sees that our money is being borrowed by the government. No matter how confident we may be of the outcome of the war, do not let us become so confident that in our acceptance of victory on the field we falter in the pursuit of that final victory which Maj. Fuller, as every Canadian soldier, is fighting for.

On Wednesday evening the nurses and hospital staff of the military hospital had a social evening in the assembly hall. Refreshments were provided by the Newmarket Red Cross Society.

While working in the bush on Saturday Alt Hart had three ribs broken.

On Tuesday evening a meeting was held in the Board of Trade rooms of the committee appointed by the board of trade and the town council to consider the question of house shortage. The matter was discussed for two hours. It was decided to insert in the two local papers the plans submitted by J. E. Wilson to ask for applications from the citizens who are desirous of purchasing homes similar to the plans and at the cost stated therein.

Uriah Marsh has purchased the farm on the west side of Queen St., south of Sharon, belonging to Mr. Kiteley. The farm consists of 70 acres. Mr. Marsh's son, who served overseas, will work the farm this summer.

The stores will close for the Wednesday half-holiday on the first Wednesday in May and will continue to do so until October. The three banks have also decided to close at one o'clock for a similar period.

Eggs were the principal commodity on the market last Saturday and were inclined to drop in price.

Butter still continues high and potatoes took a jump of another $1 a bag.

Mrs. Wm. Jeffery, Bond Head, was honored at a farewell party before leaving for her new home in Newmarket. A sister of J. A. Sharpe, Mrs. Jeffery has purchased a home on Timothy St.

Frank Marritt of Keswick was in town on Tuesday on his way to Copper Cliff, New Ontario, where he is to do some experimental farm work for the Ontario government.

Mrs. M. Kennedy, Newmarket, announces the engagement of her daughter, Annette (Netta), to Thos. J. Wallace, Detroit, Mich., the marriage to take place Wednesday, April 23.

MARRIED—At the Methodist parsonage, Newmarket, on April 20, 1920, by Rev. W. L. Lawrence, Mr. Wesley Wm. Rye to Miss Laurel Warriner, both of Keswick.

Those interested in the reorganization of a Hunt club in Newmarket are requested to meet at Mayor Lloyd's office at 8 o'clock next Saturday evening.

A lot of youngsters were padding in the creek last Saturday evening.

W. R. Mann's house on Prospect Ave. has had a new coat of paint.

The assessor for Newmarket has his roll already to return to the clerk. Compared with last year there is little change, the total value of real property being increased $16,900 but the personal property is decreased $300. There are 373 persons between 21 and 60 years of age, an increase of four, but there is a slight decrease in the total population owing, no doubt, to the closing of the north end tannery and a few families moving away. The children between 5 and 21 last year were 577, this year 540. During the past year there were 37 births and 16 deaths. The total population is not quite 2,100.

The annual petition for watering Main St. will be presented to the council at its next meeting. Last year it was watered as far as

The Newmarket blood donor clinic had its 3,000th donor last Friday, some measure of the extent of the effort made by the women and Red Cross workers in Newmarket and district. The doctors who lend so much of their time when they have so little, the donors who so freely give, of their blood, the women who work so faithfully, all deserve the heartiest of congratulations on a good job, well done.

The Progressive Conservative party has published an announcement urging the next of kin to keep their men overseas as well informed as possible about the issues and candidates in the forthcoming provincial election. The suggestion loses in its altruism when it becomes apparent that in the space reserved to write the names of the candidates in the riding, there is room for only one name, presumably that of the Progressive Conservative party's candidate.

The San Francisco conference of United Nations opened April 25. The object of the conference as defined by the United States secretary of state, Edward Stettinius, is as follows: "It is not a peace conference. It will not deal with boundaries or reparations or questions concerned with the disarmament and control of Germany and Japan."

"Its purpose is to prepare a charter of a world organization to preserve the peace in the near future which can be submitted to member nations for adoption."

Unlike most meetings of its nature, the one held Monday night to discuss ways and means of instituting a community recreation program resulted in definite promises of action. A recreation program for the children of the town is planned by the Lions club this summer. The meeting was given that assurance by the Lions president, H. E. Gilroy.

While without the scope that was hoped for, the plans of the Lions club are a definite start in the right direction. It is hoped that every effort, in the club and without, will be made to make the project a success, for on its success depends the possibility of a full scale community recreation program which would include everyone, and not just children, in future years.

Engineer Warren raked and cleaned up the market square last Friday, giving it a very tidy and respectable appearance. About 15 cents worth of paint on the market scales would set the ground off to advantage.

There was a big market crowd in town last Saturday and the streets and stores had a lively appearance. Eggs and butter were the chief commodities on the market and the ruling prices were nine cents a dozen and 14 cents a pound. Potatoes were plentiful from 50 cents to 60 cents a bag.

N. N. McDougall moved into Mrs. Bowden's house on Monday at the corner of Niagara and Tecumseh Sts.

RACE 'EM, CHASE 'EM TALAGOOS

By ORVILLE GANTON

The announcement that a group of local sportsmen, headed by the mayor, is about to organize a sports revival is pleasing news to all red-blooded sport fans. In view of this fact it might be interesting to study why the old town slipped from its former rating as one of the most aggressive sporting towns in Ontario to its present state of doldrums. However, a careful analysis might help us avoid the same mistakes again.

That Newmarket once was a superlative sporting town, capable of developing outstanding athletes in every branch of sport, the records clearly bear out. Our memories go back to old established families such as the Doyles, Kellys, EWorthys, McHales and many others who organized and played on hard-hitting teams for the sheer love of the game. The Doyle's, family of keen sportsmen, are held in the highest esteem by lacrosse followers throughout the entire dominion. Beside being outstanding players they were honored by being elected to the highest offices of the Canadian Lacrosse Association.

Since the days when the old maestro, Mike Hall, caught behind the bat bare-handed and tossed the ball as high as the Christian church steeple, Newmarket always enjoyed good hardball until this present drought set in. We never found it necessary to import players. The Howards, Peppelts, Cocheneurs and other local lads provided front rank amateur city league teams with top-notch opposition. In later years the town Industrial league was formed when every man and his dog wended his way to the fair grounds to see those bitterly fought finals between the tanners and Specialty.

In fair-flung years a visitor to the fair grounds almost any evening would have found the sports field a hive of activity. The intermediate lacrosse team would be working out around one net while the junior Talagoos were boring in and laying on the willo at the other end. Big Jack Weir could be heard as far as that word was picturesque a quarter of a century ago but I don't suppose the younger generation ever used it!

Well here I am, quite getting away from the subject, but then what more need I say about it? I do not think many of us would say that the modern song, Leave The Dishes In The Sink, would incite lazy habits in young women. The broadcaster, the announcer, I should say, didn't comment on the letter but I fancied he was rather surprised and taken aback. I guess the writer would condemn that other one too—Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree With Anyone Else But Me Till I Come Marching Home. But she surely couldn't find any fault with the one about the homesick soldier writing to his mother to say how he missed her apple pie. Maybe she would think he put the apple pie ahead of his mother and that would condemn that song—"Maw, I miss your apple pie and Maw, I miss you too!" Well, I give up. I guess I can't think of a modern song that might suit her.

What about "Roll out the barrel—we'll have a barrel of fun", no I guess that won't do either! Well here's one—or is it? Maybe mentioning men hanging up their washing might give the modern young woman an idea when you boys come home that you can do your own laundry work. Remember, "We'll hang out washing on the Siegfried Line, if the Siegfried Line's still there?" We must not encourage young folks to get wrong ideas in their heads about leaving the dishes in the sink or the boys doing their washing. The modern song writer will have to mend his ways!

I wonder if that person who wrote in with her criticism would tell us exactly what she does think? I bet she has nobody connected with the war effort in any way. What do you think? At the same I'd like to know her choice in a song, a modern song, one that we could all join in when we have that popular entertainment, a sing song. We'll never know for we may never find out who she was unless she writes to me. Oh wouldn't that be just too much fun—I wish she would!

This begins to assume the proportion of a quiz contest. Find an appropriate song!—here's another, "Where oh where has my little dog gone?" No, that won't do either, for the very thought engendered by the cartoons suggests sausage and the dachshund, that dog with the long body and the very short legs!

"Where is my wandering boy tonight" is what is in the heart of half the world—the title only, not the song, for mall seems to be so disorganized that letters are few and far between and nobody

I hear snatches of these modern songs occasionally over the air but they go in one ear and out of the other—they are not the songs we sang in my younger days so I do not bother. That particular one, however, struck me as being pretty cute and catchy, as well as appropriate at this particular time. I wonder if I can recall the chorus; something about leaving the dishes because we are going to celebrate.

The verse goes on about calling in the neighbors to help them celebrate, for they had just had word their soldier boy would get home that evening. There was cedar in the cellar and cheese and bologna in the refrigerator and they'd tell somebody or other to bring his fiddle and call off so they could dance.

We'll have to admit it isn't a classic—maybe it isn't uplifting, but the sentiments certainly are "grand and beautiful". I think it must have been someone who had a grudge who wrote objecting to it. What is that picturesque word you young people invented not so long ago that describes it perfectly—oh dear, why can't I recall that one word—let me think—oh yes (should I say oh yeah?)—I have it and it's a honey of a word, "sour puss".

You young folks with your modern catch words keep me guessing—I was so dumb I had to have it explained to me that anyone's puss meant their face and that you were not referring to a possum cat and a sour puss was what we used to call a "cross patch". Now

THE COMMON ROUND FOOTPRINTS

By ISABEL INGLIS COVILLE

There are many ways in which people of many lands and from time immemorial have read character or professed to read the future by the lines of the hand, by hand writing or by the bumps on one's head.

The Bible has its witches and soothsayers and every other land from Egypt down had and has its diviners, magicians, with doctors and spiritualists. But, although footprints are just as individualistic as palms, one never bears of predictions made from footprints.

And yet Longfellow, in a poem most of us learned in school and which has become trite from being recited by aspiring and perspiring elocutionists through the years, tells us that:

Lives of great men all remind us
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;

Footprints that perhaps another, knows where their loved ones are, the war has reached such a fast and furious pace!

I am writing this Sunday p.m.—I started yesterday and you all know what wonderful news today has brought! And the world conference at San Francisco opens on April 25, in fact it will be well on the way before this gets into print. And how can I foresee what may happen before then? Well it begins to look as if I'll not have to write many more overseas letters. Hasten the day of your homecoming! So cheerio—we woman are doing our best to help in every way possible, believe me!

Both had a deep, abiding and protective love of their countries but with this was a love of their fellow men of all races, creeds and colors in all the world.

Oppression and cruelty roused in them a strong determination to fight the authors of violence. Both had been prophets without honor in their own countries, for both foresaw the war but could not rouse their peoples to see the advance of the enemy.

Both knew that appeasement was only giving an implacable enemy more time to prepare blows against their countries. Both came into power when every prospect was black. Mr. Roosevelt had to fight the depression, Mr. Churchill, the enemy and both men had to lift their nations out of inertia by sheer will power and the strength of personality. One has watched both these men grow in mental and moral stature during these trying years.

I do not suppose that many of us ever dreamt that the death of a man most of us had never seen would leave us with such an overwhelming sense of loss.

Before radio we would not have felt so but we had all heard, often, that warm, reassuring, convincing voice taking us into its speaker's confidence, putting us straight on vexed questions, speaking out for the rights of the down-trodden, lashing out with indignation at the cruel and oppressors and through it all, little signs of humor to light up some drab duty.

We can understand Mr. Churchill's feeling for him by his tribute to his memory in the House of Commons.

One can hardly imagine two men more different in personality yet their friendship underneath their working co-operation was built on the fundamentals which supported both in their almost overwhelming tasks.

Both had a deep, abiding and protective love of their countries but with this was a love of their fellow men of all races, creeds and colors in all the world.

Oppression and cruelty roused in them a strong determination to fight the authors of violence. Both had been prophets without honor in their own countries, for both foresaw the war but could not rouse their peoples to see the advance of the enemy.

in peace and first in the hearts of their countrymen" and who, to the world outside, will live as the champion of the right of all men to live decently, speak freely and worship in the way they desire. His memory will live on!

DOWN THE CENTRE

The bells toll for two former North York athletes killed in action. Mr. and Mrs. James Cochrane of Milliken have been notified of the death of their eldest son, Lieutenant Jimmy Cochrane, M.C., who was killed in action while serving with the Oxford and Bucks regiment of the British army on March 24. Jimmy was that sun-faced, curly-headed lad who played shortstop for Richmond Hill Roses in the York-Simcoe softball league and won the hearts of the fans with his sparkling play and fine competitive spirit. He enlisted with the Queen's Yorks in 1942, going overseas shortly after D-Day. He took part in three airborne invasions, including France and the "battle of the Bulge", and for his gallantry in the former action was awarded the Military Cross. Besides playing for the Hill he performed with Unionville. Seems hard to believe that this gallant 27-year-old fellow will not be included in the post-war sports of the district.

Reported as a news story last week was the untimely ending of 31-year-old Walter Dove, who played a swell game of junior lacrosse for Aurora in the early 30's. A nephew of the famous Pete Macmillan, one of the province's best known home players in the national game, was fleet of foot, a tricky stickhandler and, while small of stature, always bore down on the opposing goal with breakneck speed, backing up from no one. He moved to Toronto following junior days and played briefly around Woodbridge after that. He leaves a wife and family. He is the third member of the Aurora Rangers of 1933 to pay the supreme sacrifice. L-Cpl. Bruce Stiles and Pte. Wesley Heaney of the same team, both having died while in uniform.

Coach George Hart was killed in a train accident in the west and Trainer Jimmy Closs, who died of illness. There, in ten years, are five young Canadians, around 25 percent of those actively connected with the club, who have passed on.

The lacrosse world also mourns the passing last week of that great athlete, Norman Cook, of Orillia. "Norm" died at the age of 51 following a year's heart illness. A veteran of the last war, Mr. Cook won fame both as a lacrosse and hockey player in his native town and later coached the famous Orillia Terriers in their quest for the Mann cup. He was also prominent as a referee in the O.H.A. C series against Aurora juniors. As an executive in the old Tri-County lacrosse circuit, he was known throughout North York and many a committee room squabble was settled by his astuteness.

It was Mr. Cook who gave Aurora the go sign on Bob Scott and also backed up the judgment of Charlie "Kid" Harman on Normie Woon's playing potentialities. Aurora got Scott but the Newmarket Redmen put the snatch on the Coldwater boy. Don Willson, Bucko McDonald, Ed Downey, Bill Wilkes and many more standouts in the sports front all benefited as the result of Mr. Cook's coaching. On the subject of lacrosse, the annual meeting of the O.A.L.A. was held in Hamilton last Saturday and not one of the old lacrosse strongholds in North York was represented by a delegate, a far cry from the days of Herb Lennox, Tom Doyle, Ernie Doyle, Frank Doyle and Charlie Querie. Ben Collings, Tom Bell and those other old timers who always saw the district was well represented. Lacrosse could easily be sold to the present day youngsters if someone would just take a hold of it. The lacrosse moguls have nobody but themselves to blame for the gutted stick game being a semi-dead pigeon.

We recall one of the most stirring addresses we ever heard and one that sent us into sports at an early age being made by the great Joe Lally of Cornwall at Aurora public school. Mr. Lally made addresses in all the schools of the district and it wasn't long after that that clubs blossomed like murals after a rain.

From Burma comes word of FO Bob Lawrie, former ace wingman of Markham juniors in junior and intermediate O.H.A. Bob says he is living mostly on bully beef and dehydrated vegetables. He spent Christmas day in shorts, sleeps in a tent, gets no papers or radio news (they must be close to the little brown brothers) and at the time of writing was awaiting the monsoon season. A far cry from ice hockey, turkey, cranberry sauce, music, dancing and the family circle that most of us enjoyed Christmas past. He doesn't care too much for the natives either.

Ace Yake, one of our steady ones on the overseas mailing route, writes in late March from Belgium where he has been on a diet of hospital and convalescence and vice versa for some months.

He reports having seen Fred Hartung, former goalie for Oak Ridges hockey club, and Norm Foster, one of the acees of the Aurora Cycling club in peacetime days. He says "the names in your column seem strange these days and I often wonder what has become of all the boys who played sports in Aurora and Newmarket in the 30's when war was a three letter word only with no meaning to most of us. You mention many of them from time to time and it is good to hear about those you remember best of all".

Ace takes a dim view of the way the hockey is being carried on back here except among the kids. After reading it I felt like mailing him that Maple Leaf hockey advertisement which appeared in the Toronto dailies. The words "over age" and "student" brought a wry smile to many of the boys in the service to whom, if they had so chosen, the same quotes might have brought exemption from service. The Leafs need no defence from this corner in view of the decisions on discharges reached and proved by the lads themselves as well as turndowns by the army. Their record is as good probably, if not better, than any other club in pro hockey.

We admit it seems highly illogical that a chap can play hockey at top speed and still be a 4F, but the facts speak for themselves and who are any of us to question the decisions made? However, you can't stop people from thinking or gossiping either.

Our thanks to "Oldtimer" who wrote to us after reading the dope on Tommy Burlington, the lad with one eye who is likely to make the grade with Chicago Black Hawks. He points out several names we forgot to mention. Included are Leo Reise of Hamilton Tiger-Cats, Bulldogs, Snoozie Trushinski of Kitchener and Johnny Brackenborough of Hamilton Tigers. It was Brackenborough who really brought the matter of one-eyed players to a boil, "Oldtimer" points out, as the game little Hamilton forward was accidentally clipped in the eye by Dr. Lou Hudson of Toronto Varsity-Granites fame.

Since writing about Burlington last week we learn his eye was injured as a result of being struck by a bow and arrow during one of those childhood cowboy and Indian games. We omitted to say also that Burlington had once made as many as 132 scoring points in a single season, a fact which needs no additional comment.

Golf balls are being batted about these days at the Aurora club and Sunnyside, as well as elsewhere but pity the poor English golfers. Used balls as well as new ones are bringing roughly as much as $2.50 each in Blighty right now. Golfers even are buying whole sets of equipment in order to get some of the little white pillars to play with. The old country gave us the game, perhaps some of the Canadian golfers could help them to continue it by sending over some of the balls in use here.

Earl Cook, according to a story emanating from Stouffville, has invoked the power of peace with the Toronto baseball club and will report for action when that club comes to Toronto on May 2 next. Cook is getting the seedling done on his 200-acre farm at Lemonville and has been warming up back of the stable and repairing the old soapbone in good form. If he makes

LOCAL MARKETS

Butter was 40 cents a pound on the local market on Saturday morning. Eggs were 30 to 35 cents a dozen.

Hens were 28 cents a pound and roasting chickens 40 cents a pound.

TORONTO MARKETS

Butter, creamery solids, No. 1, was 34½ cents a pound on the Toronto markets on Tuesday. First grade creamery prints were 36 cents a pound.

Country dealers were quoted on graded eggs, on a cases free, delivered to Toronto basis, as follows: grade A large, 34 cents; grade A medium, 32 cents; and grade A pullets, 27 cents a dozen.

Nominal prices to the shipper on poultry were: spring broilers, over 1½ pounds, 30 cents a pound; fowl, all-weights, 26 cents a pound.

Weighty steers were $11.75 to $13.25, butcher steers $11 to $11.25, butcher cows $7.75 to $10, cannery and cutters $5.50 to $7.50, bulls, $8 to $9.50, fed yearlings $11.75 to $13.50, light stockers $6.50 to $10.25.

Calves were $15 to $15.50, with a few tops at $16 for choice, with common weaners downward to $8. Lambs were $15.50. Sheep were $3 to $7. Hogs were $18 for grade A dressed-weight, $17.50 for grade B1. Sows were $15.

the grade it will be his 15th season in organized ball but already the Leafs appear to be fairly well stocked with hurlers and just what Earl can add is doubtful. Here's wishing him luck however.

Cpt. Allistair Cameron didn't set the world on fire last Thursday in the running of the famous Boston marathon but he did make a highly creditable showing considering the odds, a strange course, a long trip and a limited experience in the bunyon sport. Cameron finished 19th with the time of 3:09.52 for the 26 miles and 385 yard course. The winner was 37-year-old Johnny Kelly of West Acton, Mass., who scored his second win. Kelly came home with a 500-yard lead over his nearest opponent in the fast time of 2:30.40.2, which, while good, is still nearly four minutes away from the course record. It was the 49th running of the beantown marathon and attracted the usual big crowd.

If we recall rightly, Johnny Miles, Silas McClelland, both bluebones, Sgt. Gerard Cote and Cliff Bricker were among Canadian runners to win the classic. First Canadian home this year and in fourth place was Scotty Rankine of Galt, now serving with the R.C.A.F. Four other Canadians finished ahead of Cameron making six in the first 20, not a bad showing for the Maple Leaf runners. Cameron will undoubtedly improve as he is only in his early 20's and so far as marathon running is concerned, age is relatively immaterial, as witness the 47-year-old Clarence Demar, seven times winner of the race over 20 years.

We congratulate the officials at Newmarket camp in encouraging Cameron in his effort and in seeing he got to Boston. Cameron has been under the tutelage of Lieut. Bert Life and Mitt Wallace, former

Time after time the axe must bite into the trunk before the mighty oak comes crashing down to earth. ON THE EVE OF SAN FRANCISCO TALKS

Contributed by a senior pupil at St. John's school

Uppermost in the mind of every true citizen should be the realization at all times that he has a duty to his country. At present that duty is urgent and we must give our support to those who are trying to bring about a true and lasting peace. This obligation was placed clearly before us by our pastor, Rev. Dr. Muckle on the last two Sundays.

On Sunday, April 15, Dr. Muckle spoke on the great loss to the world in the death of the president of the United States. He said that President Roosevelt would be missed greatly by the people of the world as well as his own native country. He was a true statesman and a thoroughly good Christian.

At the end of mass, a two minutes silence was observed for the late president during which time many a fervent prayer was said for the happy repose of his soul.

On the Sunday fifteenth and twenty-second prayers were said for the members that are to take part in the San Francisco conference. These men are all keen on accomplishing the best for the world, but, without the earnest help of our prayers their task could be a very difficult one. On the decisions of that conference depends the peace of the world, so let us support them, here at home with daily, earnest supplication to God.

An example was set us last Sunday when Dr. Muckle offered the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the greatest of all prayers for a successful outcome of the conference. The mass being the principal act of Catholic worship, we realize we have given our leaders in San Francisco the greatest help possible and shall continue to do so.

With God regulating from above, the statesmen doing their utmost at the conference and we at home praying for them, we soon hope to have a sure and speedy victory.

The Era and Express office is open Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Situation Is Critical, Property Chairman Says

Aurora is facing a critical housing situation," Councillor Rod V. Smith, chairman of the town property committee, told The Era and Express this week. "It might be necessary for us to ask to be included in the restricted movement area, as in the Toronto and suburban districts.

"We could readily sell town lots and there are dozens of people waiting to build, but they cannot secure contractors to take on the work. The contractors in turn cannot get the necessary labor, and many are booked well ahead. Property is commanding a good price, and many people are selling houses they have formerly rented. About 25 or 30 families have to move and most of them have no idea where they will go. This includes some persons who have resided in town for years."

Mr. Smith feels, however, that there are many citizens who have homes big enough to share with those needing accommodation, as well as many who would at least rent out rooms.

"Anyone able to ease the situation is asked to make it known," said Mr. Smith. "While we welcome newcomers to town, it may be necessary to ask the rental controller to step in to protect citizens here from finding themselves without accommodation. We are not alone in this as many municipalities close to Toronto are finding the same situation."

The housing situation will likely be considered by council at its next meeting, Mr. Smith said.

Raymond Cook, 20, Dies, Was Student Minister

Raymond Charles Cook died suddenly at York County hospital on Monday. One of Aurora's most popular and most promising young men, Mr. Cook, who was in his 21st year, was the son of Mr. Charles Cook, Yonge St., Aurora, and the late Mary Cook, and was born in Aurora. He attended Aurora public and high schools, at the latter institution being a champion orator and debater and an officer in the cadet corps. He was also a member of Aurora Boys' band and was a well known trombone soloist. He won several medals for his playing. He organized his own brass quartet, which rendered sacred music at many church services. He was a member of Aurora United church choir and was prominent in the Y.P.U.

Upon completing his high school course he decided upon the ministry for a career, being sponsored by Aurora United church. He commenced his studies at Victoria University. Last year he spent the summer at Neidpath, Sask., in the mission field and this year was scheduled to go to Big River, Sask. He was president of his year Victoria '46 at University, and was also prominent in student activities.

A private funeral service, with Rev. Roy Hicks in charge, was held at the family residence, prior to the public service on Wednesday afternoon in Aurora United church. Rev. Stephen Mather, chairman of the Toronto centre presbytery of St. James' Bond church, and Rev. Harry Mellow, Leaside United church, were in charge of the service.

In attendance were many prominent ministers of the United church and officials of Victoria University, as well as fellow students.

The pallbearers were classmates, Clifford Cornett, Richard Craddock, John Truman, Keith Blair, Noor Hassanali, and Howard Matson of Schomberg. Classmates also acted as ushers and flower bearers, and formed a guard of honor.

Interment was at Newmarket cemetery.

DEL. PATON HIGH SCORER

Queen Mary L.O.B.A. held its final eurehe of the season in the Orange Hall on Monday evening. The evening's prizewinners were: gentlemen, Mrs. Irene West, Mrs. Harry Teasdale, Howard Williamson; ladies, Mrs. C. Burling, Newmarket, Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. James Collins.

Grand prizewinner of the year was Del Paton with a score of 618.

The plant committee consisted of Robert Currey, chairman, Q.M.S. Ambry Cotton, Robert Dobson, Sgt. "Red" Canning and L.Cpl. E. Nusca.

It is expected the presentation of the Victory Loan pennant by M.D. 2 officials and the flag-raising ceremony will take place shortly.

Thanks

*to 3 million

Canadians*

More than one out of every four Canadians — men, women and children — bought 7th Victory Loan bonds out of their savings and earnings. Their total investments exceeded 750 million dollars — more than half of the entire loan objective!

You Bought Bonds for Many Reasons

To help the war effort—to curb inflation—to build post-war security—but mainly you bought because, as patriotic Canadians, you knew that the very best you could do to help was to save and invest ALL you could. These fighting men are also buying bonds overseas.

THE RACE OF LIFE IS ON

Each year more and more farmers start their chicks on SHUR-GAIN Chick Starter than ever before. There's a reason why each year more chicks are started on SHUR-GAIN than on any other feed—in fact, there are several reasons.

1. Chicks like a fresh, tasty feed. If they like their feed they eat more and grow faster. Chicks like SHUR-GAIN Chick Starter because it's made so fresh, it's ground so carefully and it's made of only the finest and most palatable ingredients.
2. Chicks need a finely-balanced combination of feed materials with particular attention paid to the correct amounts of vitamins, minerals and high quality animal proteins. Chicks grow and thrive on SHUR-GAIN Chick Starter because it's made accurately and specifically for their needs.
3. There's solid value given for every dollar spent. You pay for no expensive frills, you get full value for every cent you spend for your chick starter when you buy SHUR-GAIN. SHUR-GAIN Chick Starter is made locally, thus cutting out all the extra costs of handling, hauling and middlemen's profits.

Grow better chicks for less money, the SHUR-GAIN WAY!

In addition, the three clubs that proved so successful during the past two years are in the process of formation, namely, the Sharon Swine club, the Markham Calf club and the Woodbridge Calf club.

"THE LINE IS CLEAR..."

Long life . . . low upkeep
... the Ford V-8 Engine

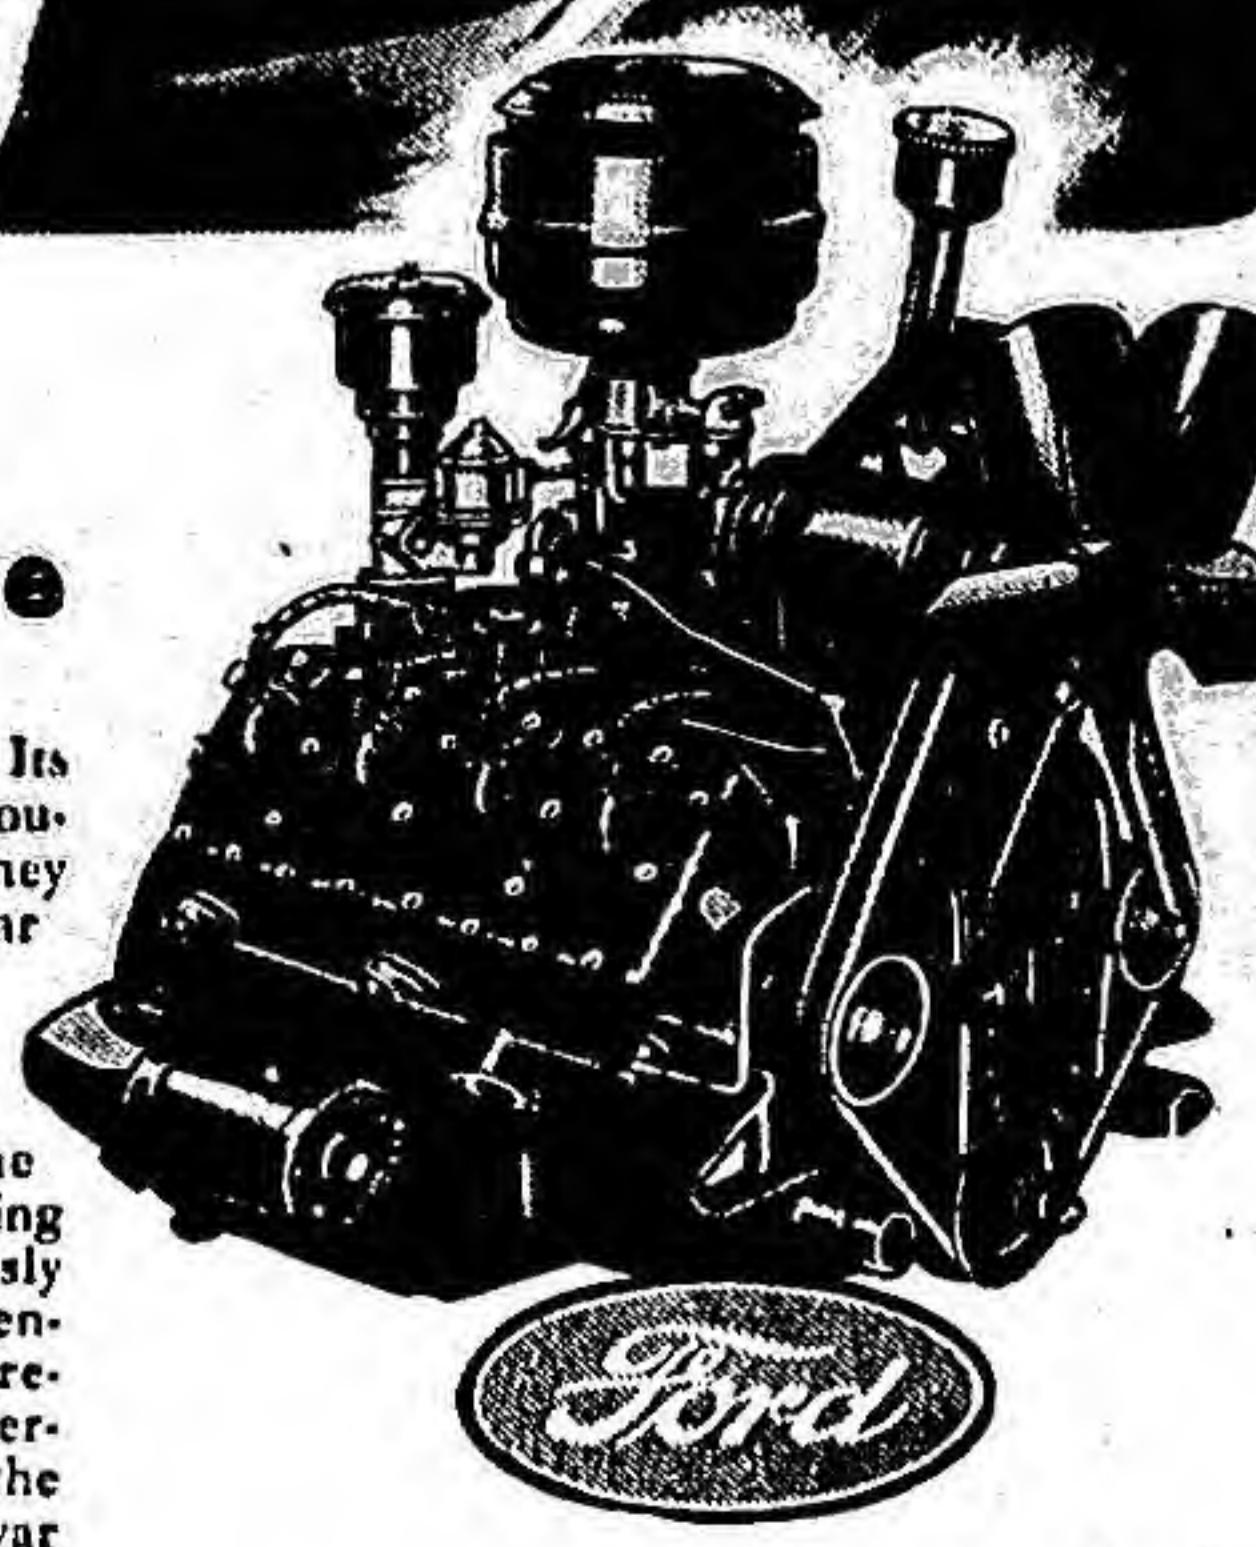

ALL THE FORDS on the road today are growing old—there have been no new ones made since 1942. The amazing thing to owners is how well they've stood up all through the war.

In many cases they haven't had the best of care, for many of the skilled mechanics who formerly tuned them up regularly are in the armed forces, and Ford dealers must give priority to the servicing of essential transport.

The way Ford cars have kept on doing their duty during the war years speaks well for the way the Ford V-8 engine is engineered and built. Its rugged simplicity has meant low upkeep costs. Its fuel economy has made thousands of Canadians thankful they owned a Ford when the war came on.

Will the post-war Ford be powered with the same V-8 engine? Yes, a V-8 with all the battle-tested refinements resulting from the war years. Continuously since 1942 Ford of Canada engineers have developed new refinements to enhance the performance of the V-8 engine in the war zones. In the post-war models all these engineering advancements will be offered to you at once.

MRS. S. JOHNSTON IS NAMED W.I. PRESIDENT

Another year ended for Elm Grove Women's Institute when the members met at the home of Mrs. Buckley. The roll-call was answered by the paying of the fee.

Donations were made to the following hospitals during the year: Taplow Military hospital in England, York County hospital, Newmarket, and Sutton Private hospital.

Three times during the year the Institute remembered the local boys who are overseas. Credit is due Mrs. Allan Smallwood, editor of the Elm Grove Echo.

The auditor's report was read by Mrs. Fred Tomlinson, who also gave the report of the district directors' meeting.

Mrs. Buckley conducted the election of officers for the new year. They are as follows: hon. pres., Mrs. H. Cronberry; pres., Mrs. S. Johnston; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. M. Munro; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. A. Hamilton; 3rd vice-pres., Mrs. A. Smallwood; sec-treas., Mrs. J. Munro; pianist, Mrs. P. Brown; district director, Mrs. L. Ley; directors, Mrs. Donald Ward, Mrs. Irvin Tomlinson;

A history of the Canadian Women's Army Corps is in course of preparation for army historical records by one of its members, Lieut. Edith Deyell of Toronto.

Lester, Eleanor, Collingwood Mountain, Misses Minnie and Elsie Riesebrough and Mr. and Mrs.

George Brown and Norma, all spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Riesebrough, Zephyr.

A large congregation gathered in the Mount Albert Gospel church on Sunday evening to hear Miss Esther Peacock tell of life and internment in Japanese Manchuria. The story was filled with incidents of God's wonderful care and deliverance to those who trust Him fully. Two inspiring solos were prayerfully heard from Mrs. George Allison. This coming Sunday Mr. Farmer, president of the Uxbridge Christian Business Men's Association, will lead the song service and the pastor, E. S. Kerr, will preach on the topic, When God Declares War.

The Easter examination results were returned this week with many a groan, sigh and cheer. We rather suspect the groans and sighs drowned out the cheers.

George Blake, former student of the high school, now serving in the Merchant Marine, wrote last week to Mrs. Morgan who used to try and "pound" French into his head. He said that he had been to Panama, Cuba and other parts of the West Indies, and that Allan Bunn of Rochelle Point is on the same ship.

Last Saturday, the boys who went to Sharon to plant trees, came home early because of the snow storm.

On Wednesday the assembly was addressed by Mr. McGill who in a very enthusiastic speech asked that everyone who possibly could to volunteer to help on the tag day for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind on May 5. Mr. McGill spoke sincerely and with understanding as he has lost his own eyesight.

Mr. Lockhart announced Tuesday that the school would hear a talk by a returned serviceman from Newmarket on Friday. "Official sources" have not yet disclosed who the speaker is.

the flak was intense but out of 86 planes, we lost only two.

"When we are in the plane there are two signals. The first is a red light which means there is only three seconds to go before we jump. Just after the red light went on our plane was hit by flak and the pilot was forced to take evasive action. We were thrown into a heap. We no sooner scrambled to our feet when the plane lurched again and we went down a second time. We got to our feet just as the green light went on and we jumped.

"We jump from 800 to 500 feet up and we are in the air from 30 to 45 seconds but it seemed an age. I saw that I was heading for a river and sure enough, I landed right in the middle of it. I got ashore and joined my men. For two weeks we were behind the enemy lines before we joined the men who invaded France by sea. During those weeks we did our jobs which consisted of blowing up two bridges, wrecking a power plant and heating up a village held by over 100 Germans. We suffered heavy casualties during those two weeks.

"After we joined the men from the beaches, we fought with them as far as the Seine River. I was wounded and had to be evacuated. I was taken on a Red Cross jeep through the enemy lines to an evacuation camp on the beach. I was sent across by water to England and to a base hospital.

"Of all the services in the army I have the highest admiration for the medical men. They did wonders in handling the wounded. They even parachuted medical men with penicillin and blood plasma to us."

After Major Fuller was recovered he rejoined his outfit in time to be thrown into action during the Ruhr offensive at Christmas. Following this action he and his men were returned to England to train for the Rhine crossing. The day he was scheduled to leave word came through that he was being given leave and he returned to Canada.

"In closing," he said, "there is one point I would like to stress about the victory loan. I cannot see victory as only a proclamation. To my mind victory is when every Canadian soldier is returned home and in a job. That takes a lot of money. Then there is the cost of rehabilitation and policing Germany. That takes money too. So when I hear someone say that they don't see why they should buy bonds with the war so nearly over, it just doesn't make sense."

Major Fuller was introduced by R. C. Morrison and thanked by President Herman E. Ollroy.
